

I just wanted to make the point that besides K-LOVE there are no other decent radio broadcasting stations in the area that my children, spouse or I may listen to without hearing something that we don't need to hear.

I believe that losing the most positive radio station in the community through displacement by an LPFM broadcaster would have an adverse effect on the community.

I believe that K-LOVE is very encouraging and possibly life changing for a large number of people in the community.